2 of 2 review helpful Salmond like many brilliant people is an enigma By Daedalus In the run up to the referendum I returned home to Scotland and was mystified by the attitude of my eldest sister who living in an remote part of the Highlands told me she did not trust Alex Salmond and was sufficiently concerned that she was going to vote no in the referendum She was not able to tell me why she felt this way she has nev The inside story of the campaign that rocked the United Kingdom to its foundations and the implications of the Scottish independence movement for the future of British politics Alex Salmond has been a passionate supporter of Scottish independence his whole life In September 2014 he came close to realising that dream In a riveting daily diary written with his trademark wit and charm Salmond takes us into the heart of the YES campaign revealing what lsquo A riveting account of the campaign that rocked the Westminster establishment and changed Scotland for ever A must read book for all of us who believe that Scotland should have equal rights with all other nations rsquo SEAN CONNERY
