1 of 1 review helpful Truly inspired By Jane in Milwaukee My copy of this book is in pretty bad shape It was checked out 38 times between 1983 and 2004 from the Northumberland County Technical College Library in Ashington My husband is from England and his hometown of Carlisle in Cumbria is only a county away I mention this detail only because it's a small world Both counties bordering on Scotland are right in the m The author deals with well defined groups of embroidered articles such as chair seats bed hangings and pictures and has selected only signed and dated or otherwise well documented pieces to serve as reference She shows from contemporary accounts and inventories how they came to be made and where possible the source of the materials and designs Of special interest to those who curate visit and document the great country houses in Scotland and Northern England
