This new paperback edition brings together the latest thoughts on the development of the medieval Scottish kingdom. Thirteen contributors explore the central themes in medieval Scottish history: the interplay between Celtic and feudal influences; crown magnate relations; local and national relations; and the political definition of the kingdom. Magnificent tribute to Professor Barrow. Northern Scotland: An important collection. Northern History. This admirable edited volume comes close to being an adequate tribute to a major historian. J. Campbell. Oxford University. English Historical. Magnificent trib.
