0 of 0 review helpful Absolutely Essential By Tom Wescott This is a Ripper book with Stewart P Evans name on the cover Ask any long time Ripperologist and they'll tell you that's all the review you need when deciding to buy a book. Like all of Evans books this one contains much information between its covers that you're not going to get in another book. And unlike many if not most books on the Ripper you can trust Drawing on their unparalleled knowledge of the Jack the Ripper murders and their professional experience as police officers the two doyens of serious Ripper writing join forces for the first time to write the definitive book on the case from the perspective of the police investigation. As the title declares this is the complete investigation and is full of new insights and information on the murders and who might have committed them. About the Author Stewart Evans is a leading crime historian and is widely considered one of the foremost specialists on Jack the Ripper. A former police officer his previous books include Jack the Ripper Letters from Hell and Executioner.
