0 of 0 review helpful A lot to like but By James Talley I thought it was a fairly weak read I enjoyed most of it but did not finish it with the sad feeling I get reading most good books I would recommend Edinburgh is one of the most beautiful cities in the world mdash with one of the darkest histories on record Starting with the Roman era and sweeping through the centuries in a blood soaked catalogue of battles diseases royal deaths and disasters this is history as you have never read it before Read how Lord Drumlanrig once roasted a servant on a spit nbsp Discover why Station Road used to be caled Cut Throat Lane nbsp With horrible tales involving Mary Quee About the Author Geoff Holder nbsp is a full time writer lecturer and researcher with more than 20 books on the stranger side of history to his name His previous titles include Scottish Bodysnatchers A Gazetteer 101 Things To Do With A Stone Circle
