The description of South Africa as a rainbow nation has always been taken to embrace the black brown and white peoples who constitute its population. But each of these groups can be subdivided and in the white case the Scots have made one of the most distinctive contributions to the country's history. The Scots as in North America and Australasia constituted an important element in the patterns of White settlement. They were already present in the area of nbsp; Based on innovative archival research in South Africa and written in an accessible and lucid style this is a significant contribution to South Africa Scottish imperial and emigration history.
