0 of 0 review helpful Great book about an old area of Scotland and the By Norman M McIntosh Great book about an old area of Scotland and the stories associated with the people who lived there Great book for Clan Mackintosh and Clan Chattan fans Along a Highland Road is a lively account of life in the Highlands over the centuries based on events and stories associated with a dozen or so miles of the A9 where it crosses the valley of the Findhorn Strathdearn on the way from Aviemore to Inverness The Strath was for long rather inaccessible so that changes in the way of life there were slower in coming with the result that the memory of older customs has lingered on particularly as it is an old Highland custom
