2 of 2 review helpful A Great Chapter in a series on Scotland By Tom McVey If you like reading about Scotland s history do yourself a favor and purchase the whole series that this volume is a portion of I've done so and each book is indeed a chapter in this anthropological work. Well illustrated well written and each book chapter is handled by an expert in that field. This text in 'The Making of Scotland' series focuses on the way in which the Vikings made Scotland the centre of a great sea faring kingdom and how their influence can still be felt in Orkney and Shetland. About the Author: Olwyn Owen is an Inspector of Ancient Monuments with Historic Scotland and internationally respected specialist on the Viking period.
