Over the course of a dozen years Scottish plant collector Isobel Wylie Hutchison 1889 – 1982 explored northern latitudes from the Lofoten Islands of Norway to the far reaches of the American Aleutians. To achieve her goals she traveled by any means available from rowboats in Greenland to trading schooners and coast guard vessels in Alaska. When necessary she journeyed by snowshoe or sled in pursuit of her botanical specimens accompanied only by strangers. From Publishers Weekly Before the modern era a young woman of means who was disinclined to marry and bear children had few options. She could care for aging relatives, join a devotional community or had she a taste for adventures simply pack her bag and go. Seekin
