Every town and city has great stories to tell. They all have local heroes and terrific tales about the people and industries of the area. In this book Frank Beattie has tapped into the rich history of his native Kilmarnock and has brought together a wide selection of fantastic facts which cover not just the nationally important events such as one of the world's first timetabled railway passenger services but the quirky like the fact that Kilmarnock celebra About the Author Kilmarnock resident Frank Beattie is well known for his local history books and for his weekly page in the Kilmarnock Standard. His history work has even been mentioned in the House of Commons.
