By Michael Hone : Charles XII of Sweden: Versus Peter the Great of Russia Charles XII of Sweden: Versus Peter the Great of Russia:

Charles was King at age 15 after losing the mother he adored and the father he worshipped Totally fearless and determined like Frederick the Great he won battles while immensely outnumbered like the Great Alexander he was often foolhardy and like Peter Tsar at age 10 his curiosity was put to the glory of his realm A bullet stopped him in midflight an Icarus brought to earth by the Sun he wished to emulate Charles rsquo life was defined by his wars against Peter
