the county Lost Glasgow: Glasgow's Lost Architectural Heritage:

In this informative and beautifully illustrated book Carol Foreman traces Glasgow's history primarily through buildings which have been demolished but which played a central part in the city's story at one time or another. Beginning with the Medieval age the book is comprised of four parts spanning more than eight centuries: the Medieval town from Reformation to the Act of Union, the Merchant City and finally the Victorian Age. Lost Glasgow provides a fascina Carol Foreman conjures a personal and compelling vision full of character detail and anecdote of a city in which she so obviously believes. It is a belief every Glaswegian should share. Daily Mail About the Author
