The True Story:

1 of 1 review helpful Inspiring and exciting By A Dobe I love first person stories where the actual participants tell what happened what they did and how it felt and this is a great one This is a story about the ambition of one young man to inspire his countrymen by performing a daring even foolhardy act As I read this story I felt like I was there with the four young people who tried to awaken the soul of a nation Ian Robertson Hamilton was an unknown law student at Glasgow University until Christmas Eve 1950 On that night assisted by Alan Stewart Gavin Vernon and Kay Matheson he took the Stone of Destiny from beneath the Coronation Chair in Westminster Abbey and in doing so became a Scottish national hero In England however the act had the opposite effect and a manhunt for the vulgar vandals was started to satisfy the outrage of the English establishment and bring them to heel He writes with a passionate love of his country Herald About the Author Ian R Hamilton is best known for his part in the repatriation of the Stone of Destiny is was one of Scotland's most prominent lawyers
