This history of the Alliance Trust one of Scotland's oldest and most interesting companies and the UK's largest general investment fund is a story of flexibility, patience, careful management and acting in the best interests of shareholders. Alliance Trust began life in Dundee in 1888 as a mortgage company financing farmers in the American West. It inherited the business of several Dundee based mortgage companies that had lent wisely and unwisely on large and About the Author Charles Munn is the current chairman of the Customer Contact Association Academy.
