0 of 0 review helpful Good secondary source By A Luna Good secondary source Used for my graduate class More information than an encyclopedia article and it has a great bibliography A new revised edition of this invaluable guide to the background to and causes of the Union of 1707 which outside Parliament in Edinburgh was deeply unpopular in Scotland Extended and re written in the light of re establishment of a Scottish Parliament in 1999 the book takes the reader through the maze of competing arguments about why Scots gave up their Parliament in the first place Professor Whatley's account is dispassionate but also lucid highly readable and f An invaluable introduction for anyone at any level interested in this crucial event in modern British history Clive Jones Institute of Historical Research
