By Eileen Dunlop : Queen Margaret of Scotland biography of margaret tudor queen of scotland daughter of king henry vii of england sister to king henry viii margaret of scotland or saint margaret patroness of scotland is known for removing celtic practices from the church of scotland Queen Margaret of Scotland:

1 of 1 review helpful Unbiased look at Great Historical Figure By Mary Mehaffey Fair and unbiased bio of Queen Margaret of Scotland very impressed with author s research Easy to read and fascinating look into that era There is no denying Queen Margaret s imaginative hold on generations of Scots Born c 1046 she died in 1094 and was canonised in 1250 She stands on a line between the late Celtic Norse and early medieval periods although she was contemporaneous with the Vikings by her time the Roman church was firmly established in all but the outer reaches of Europe among which was Scotland Margaret a princess of impeccable lineage who was reared at the courts of Andrew II of Hun fascinating in its unpicking of the myth Scotsman This book is a piece of careful disciplined research but it is also a gripping yarn well told Who needs legend when history is this good History Teaching Association Yearbook 2006
