By Stana Nenadic : Lairds and Luxury: The Highland Gentry in Eighteenth-century Scotland Lairds and Luxury: The Highland Gentry in Eighteenth-century Scotland:

This book is a critical account of the social economic and cultural experience of consumption and luxury of the Highlands. It looks at all classes and various professions finally looking closely at the Highland gentry during a period of significant change. The subject is inspired by a commonly articulated moral criticism of the gentry – that they were more luxurious and feckless than similar groups elsewhere and that their conspicuous consumption. About the Author Stana Nenadic a graduate of Strathclyde and Glasgow Universities is Senior Lecturer in Social History at the University of Edinburgh. Her research has focused on the social economic and cultural life of businessmen professionals.
