Excellent so far about half way through it Very detailed with insightful information regarding an important place in Celtic Christianity s historic past Recommended if you like that sort of thing In May 2013 it was 1450 years since the arrival on Iona of Columba the imperious and energetic Irishman of royal descent who founded its famous monastery and became Scotland s best known Celtic saint To celebrate this important anniversary Iona Cathedral Trust has commissioned a new book by the historian Rosalind K Marshall Using a wide variety of sources and taking into account the results of the most recent historical and archaeological research she charts the ma Cover quote from Sally Magnusson About the Author Rosalind K Marshall is an author historian and Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature
